Practice Overview

James Doble has been an integral part of Chambers since 1987, initially joining as a Junior Clerk. Over the years, he has steadily progressed through various roles, including First Junior Clerk, before assuming the position of Senior Clerk in 2014.

With decades of experience, James is deeply committed to supporting members in enhancing their professional practices. His main role within the clerks room is to oversee the smooth day-to-day functioning of Chambers, ensuring efficient operations and seamless client service.

'James Doble is just wonderful. He is so experienced, and has customer service skills that really are second-to-none. He is warm and funny, and will work hard to find the right fit for you and your client. He runs a tight ship but with warmth and it really shows.'

'James Doble is legendary. He understands the individual talent of the barristers and matches them to criteria with honesty and fairness. He ensures all the other clerks follow suit and the approach across the board is uniform.'
